Opera Santa Barbara's 2014-15 season will open at the Granada Theatre on Friday, November 7th at 7:30pm and Sunday, November 9th at 2:30pm with the return of Verdi's blockbuster Rigoletto. One of the most popular and heart-wrenching of all operas, Rigoletto was most recently performed by OSB in 2007. This new production is directed by Brad Dalton, who staged the company's 2011 production of La bohème. Los Angeles Opera's Christopher Allen will be making his OSB conducting debut, as will baritone Evan Brummel (pictured above) singing the title role.

La temporada de 2014-15 de la Ópera de Santa Bárbara tendrá su apertura en el Teatro Granada el viernes, 7 de noviembre a las 7:30pm y el domingo, 9 de noviembre a las 2:30pm con el regreso de Rigoletto, la superproducción de Verdi. Una de las más populares y desgarradoras de todas las óperas, recientemente Rigoletto se realizó por OSB en 2007. Esta nueva producción está dirigida por Brad Dalton, que organizó La bohème, la producción de la compañía en el 2011. Christopher Allen de la Ópera de Los Ángeles hará su debut como conductor de OSB, tal como el barítono Evan Brummel (en la foto de arriba) que va a cantar el papel protagonista.

BASSH!, which also supports humanitarian causes, will donate a portion of its proceeds to the Trudie Olsen-Curtis Foundation, an organization that dedicates its efforts to empowering women and children locally and globally.

TANGO ARGENTINO, SALSA, SWING, HIP HOP, Y BAILE DE SALÓN COMPETITIVO SERÁN exhibidos durante BASSH!, la producción anual de baile de gran energía bajo la dirección del fundador y productor Derrick Curtis. Santa Barbara International Film Festival

Jessica Lange to be honored with Kirk Douglas Award for Excellence in Film

ACCLAIMED AS ONE OF THE GREATEST ACTRESSES OF HER GENERATION, Jessica

Lange has dazzled the screen with over 30 credits to her name.

On Sunday, November 16th, from 6 to 10pm, the Santa Barbara International Film Festival will celebrate her achievements at the ninth annual Kirk Douglas Award For Excellence In Film black-tie gala dinner at Bacara Resort & Spa.

“Jessica Lange possesses the three key elements in making it in this crazy business: talent, beauty, and intelligence...all of which have served her well and continue to do so. It is my honor to give her my award,” shared Kirk Douglas.

Lange made her Hollywood debut in John Guillermin’s King Kong opposite Jeff Bridges and Charles Grodin, winning a Golden Globe for Best Acting Debut in a Motion Picture. She then permanently put her name on the map by receiving dual Academy Award and Golden Globe nominations in the same year for her challenging performances in Frances and in Sydney Pollack’s memorable comedy Tootsie starring opposite Dustin Hoffman, for which she took home the Oscar for Supporting Actress. Lange won her second Oscar for her starring role in Blue Sky, opposite Tommy Lee Jones.

Lange is in revered company, joining previous recipients Forrest Whittaker, Robert De Niro, Michael Douglas, Harrison Ford, Quentin Tarantino, Ed Harris, John Travolta, and Kirk Douglas himself.

The Kirk Douglas Award for Excellence in Film serves as a fundraiser for the Santa Barbara International Film Festival, which will celebrate its 30th Anniversary January 27 through February 7, 2015.

Tickets start at $500 and are available at www.sbiff.org or by calling 963-0023.
